

A SERVICE OF THANKSGIVING

FOR THE LIFE OF

ALEXANDER JAY ADAM '07

(1984-2007)

PRINCETON UNIVERSITY CHAPEL

Monday, February 19, 2007

4:30 P.M.

Touch in me all love and passion, pain and pleasure.
 Touch in me grief and comfort; love and passion, pain and pleasure. Sing me a lullaby, a love song, a requiem
 Love me, comfort me, bring me to God:
 Sing me a love song, sing me to Heaven.

Anthem And I Saw a New Heaven Edgar L. Bainton
 (1880-1956)

And I saw a new heaven and a new earth:
 For the first heaven and the first earth were passed away;
 and there was no more sea.
 And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.
 And I heard a great voice out of heaven, saying,

 "Behold, the tabernacle of God is with you, and God will dwell with you and you shall be God's people, and Adonai shall be with you and be your God.
 And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes:
 And there shall be no more death, neither sorrow or crying, neither shall there be any more pain, for the former things are passed away."

Revelations XXI, vv.1-4

*Litany of Hope

In the midst of sadness, let us affirm our hope.

We are gathered as a community to honor a son, a brother, a student, a classmate, and a friend.

Leader We remember a son who showed care for others.

People We affirm our hope in the power of kindness.

Leader We remember a brother who sought knowledge with alacrity.

People We affirm our hope found in knowledge and truth.

Leader We remember a student who was creative and exuberant in his work.

People We affirm our hope in the fruitful outcome of our labors.

Leader We remember a classmate who delighted in the unusual.

People We affirm our hope in the unexpected.

Leader We remember a friend who held a special place in our hearts.

People We affirm our hope found in the eternal memory of love.

Leader We look to one another for support and encouragement.

People And our hope grows strong.

Leader Forgetting nothing, let us move forward in hope.

People Upholding one another, let us move forward in hope.

Leader With faith in all that is sacred, let us walk in hope.

People With faith in love, we will walk in love.

Leader So be it.
